STARTERS

ShIPLEY Do-nuts of Garland has been glazing, powdering and filling donuts for the past 18 years. Lee and Lyna Var, Khmer Rouge refugees, say Garland is a unique city and they are proud to be a part of it. They endured many hardships to provide a better life for their two children. Now, daughter Joanne continues the tradition and runs the shop.

ENTRÉE

How can you Make Your Mark on Garland? Joanne says her parents have taught her that through perseverance, grit, hardworking ethics, dedication and compassion, they can get through anything. Joanne hopes to continue their legacy for years to come. Their message: "We are all in this together."
